Target audience

- Non-native teachers who teach their curriculum subject(s) in English to learners aged 7-12
- You need at least an intermediate level of English (B1)

Course summary

The aim of this course is to help you gain confidence in your ability to get better at using English for your teaching. This course is both a language and methodology course. It will not be subject specific but will work on language that is needed across the curriculum. However, participants will be encouraged to teach a topic related to their teaching subject, so that they can focus on their specific needs. This course also provides a large amount of English throughout.

Programme of the training activities

- The language of classroom management and instruction
- Improving your ability to explain subjects in simple or more complex English, as required
- Improvement of your English in all four skills
- Methodology that can be used across the curriculum
- Ways to help students get the most out of learning in another language
- Focus on the specific requirements of CLIL
- Adapting authentic materials used for teaching native children
- Multiple Intelligence in CLIL for Primary
- Materials development
